

By the NUMBERS

Figures pulled from 2022 Fall Census/October Job Data

10 departments spanning the arts, health, and education

1,832 Undergraduates 1,174 Graduate Students

STUDENT ENROLLMENT

Some students have more than one major across different areas

13.6% are in the Arts 43.3% are in Health 44.8% are in Education

DIVERSITY

Faculty 34.9% of faculty identify as a faculty of color

58.4% of faculty are women

Students 22.9% of our graduate and undergraduate students identify as a student of color

go.wisc.edu/soepop soenews@education.wisc.edu

RANKINGS

According to the 2023-24 U.S. News & World Report Best Education Graduate Schools rankings released in April 2023:

#3 School of Education
This marks the 10th straight year we are ranked in the top five.

10 graduate programs within the School of Education are ranked by U.S. News in the latest ratings:

#1 Rehabilitation Counseling

#2 Educational Psychology

#2 Secondary Teacher Education

#4 Curriculum and Instruction

#4 Education Policy

#4 Elementary Teacher Education

#5 Student Counseling

#6 Educational Administration

#10 Special Education

#13 Higher Education Administration

Alumni

nearly 53,000 alumni living in all 50 U.S. states and at least 75 other countries

Research

Faculty and staff are working on research projects worth $65 million in fiscal year 2022

Scholarships and Fellowships

$2.4 million awarded this year